William Crouchman elected County Board Chair

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. – William Crouchman was elected today to a two-year term as chair of the Macomb County Board of Commissioners.

Crouchman, D-St. Clair Shores, was elected on a 14-12 vote at the Board's biennial organizational meeting. Dana Camphous-Peterson, D-Harrison Township, was elected vice chair and Leonard Haggerty, D-Roseville, was re-elected Sergeant-at-Arms.

"I'm honored that my fellow commissioners elected me to serve Macomb County as chair of the board," Crouchman said. "It's going to be a busy two-years and I'm looking forward to getting started as soon as possible."

Crouchman, 63, was first elected in 2004 by voters in southern St. Clair Shores to be their representative on the County Board.

Camphous-Peterson, 43, joined the County Board in June 2006 when she was appointed to fill the District 18 seat vacated by former Commissioner Bob Gibson. She was elected in November 2006 to her own two-year term. Haggerty, 86, has been a board member since 1999.
